New Pattern: Q.10. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: 05
Old Pattern: Q.6. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:
OR—Make a summary of the following passage:

PASSAGE	Years
9. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: (15) Trees give shade for the benefit of others. They themselves stand in the sun and endure scorching heat. They produce the fruit by which others profit. The character of a good man is like that of trees. What is the use of this perishable body, if no use of it, is made for the benefit of mankind? Sandal wood-the more it is rubbed the more scent does it yield. Sugar-cane-the more it is peeled and cut into pieces, the more juice does it produce. Gold- the more it is burnt, the more brightly does it shine. The man who is noble at heart, does not lose these qualities, even in losing his life. What does it matter whether man praises them or not? What difference does it make whether riches abide with them or not? What does it signify whether he dies at this moment or whether his life is prolonged? Happened what those who tread in the right path, may, will not set foot in any other way. Life itself is unprofitable to a man who does not live for others. To live for the mere sake of living one's life, is to live the life of dogs and cows. Those who lay down their lives for others, for the sake of a friend or even for the sake of a stranger, will dwell forever in a world of bliss. (i) Make precis of the passage. (5) (ii) Find a word from the above passage that means: (5) Only, bear, mortal, walk, pass-away (iii) Do you agree with the writer's view point? Give reason. (3) (iv) With what does the writer compare the life of a man? (2)	2025
9. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: (15) After Asia, Africa is the largest continent and it consists of more than thirty-five independent countries. Its northern parts have relations with Europe and Asia for many centuries but, very little was known about other parts till the middle of the last century. No wonder it was called the "Dark Continent" once. Nigeria is the large country of West Africa and it is the most thickly populated of all the African countries. One thing that is common in our villages and which we shall miss in an African village is the cattle. In many parts of Africa, farmers cannot rear cattle on account of a kind of fly whose sting kills the cattle and causes sleeping sickness among human	2024

Q.6. Make a summary of the following passage: Sports can be used for both purposes, good and evil, if used well, sports can teach endurance, courage, cooperation, fair play, a healthy respect of rules and the quality of putting group interest over one's own personal interest. If used badly, they breed undesirable vanity and rivalry. Thus sports can be used either to promote warlike tendencies or inculcate the value of peace and cooperation.	2017
We should treat our father kindly for the love he rendered when we were young. He is now old and therefore, it is our duty to provide him with every comfort. We should be kind to our mother because she treated us with tender affection in our childhood. She still prays for our welfare. We should make her last days happy and pleasant. This is our moral as well as religious duty.	2016
Care of children must go hand in hand with another duty to toughen them up, to build up their resistance and increase their courage and stress threshold by exposing them to different situation so that they may become a healthy lot. We do so much to nourish the bodies of our children, but do little to nourish their soul, spirit and character. We provide them with meat and potatoes but fail to build up the muscles of their mind.	2015
